Bleatings By the OLD GOAT

HOW DO YOU like our new (three week old Old Goat) heading above? Frank Arnaudo was kind enough to draw a personalized goat for us. But there is more to the story. Frank is the "permanent" secretary of the Italian American Social Club of Campbell, and we are the president. On occasions Frank has sent us mail pertaining to club business. The envelope he used always had a drawing of "the Old Goat". We thought that we should take advantage of this talent, so we asked him to do a series of goats with different expressions.

BECAUSE THE GUY works cheap (FREE), we don't know when we expect delivery of the others. But as soon as we get them we will give our readers a look.

ANOTHER "NEW LOOK" part of The Press is the new style of type. During the past few weeks, we have had to mix the new with the old, but now we think conversion is completed. We hope you like it.

LAST WEEK we, too, accomplished many "firsts" in our life. We flew down to Los Angeles for the first time. It was the first time we sat in a plane facing forward. It was the first time the family flew together. It was the first time we were offered the services of a hostess. And it was the first time that everyone on the plane was not wearing the same color Army uniform.

DURING OUR TWO and one half years we have had the responsibility of managing The Press, we think this is the toughest week for writing our editorial column. The recommendations for City Council. We waited for the forum sponsored by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce to decide, and yet we still had a rough time of it.

. SPEAKING OF THE Chamber's part in the forum, we should like to congratulate the committee for such a well run forum. And special bouquets to Jack Dawson for his performance as moderator. If you missed it, and we figure that about 1,202 eligible voters did, all we can say is, "you missed a fine chance to see all of the candidates."

BUT WE STILL feel a sense of duty to present a slate... our recommendations. If you agree... vote for them - if you disagree with any or all, VOTE for your choice... But VOTE!

BESIDES VISITING Disneyland we had a nice visit with George and Dorothy Vierhus. We enjoyed the latter more. We must be getting old. We attended a forum. similar to our

Light attendance at forum; candidates speak

The indifference of Campbell voters was clearly evident in the small turnout to hear the ten candidates for the three seats on the Campbell City Council last Thursday night. The open forum, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, was held in the City Hall. Approximately 50 persons attended. Chamber president, John T. (Jack) Dawson, acted as moderator. Each of the candidates was allowed three minutes for his presentation. Questions were then asked by the audience.

The subject of "downtown Campbell" came up the most often at the forum, as well as "spot" zoning, the condition of streets, expanding the park program, and reduction of taxes.

The candidates for City Council are John Billmeyer, public relations, San Jose Merchants Association; Edward Bealer, Campbell insurance agent; William Mertsching, real estate salesman. Richard Mayne, deputy County Coroner's Investigator; Dr. C. Ross McConnell, chiropractor; Sidney A. Smith Sr., electrician; Elmer Blakey, civil engineer; Dr. Edward J. Rogers, incumbent, Professor, San Jose State College; William Smeed, attorney; and Charles Rose, merchant.

According to the City Clerk, Mrs. Dorothy Trevethan, there were 4,911 registered voters in 1962. at the time of the last Council election. Of these, 1,008 voted. This year there are 5,589 registered voters in Campbell.

There will be thirteen polling places for voters next Tuesday, April 14. They are located at Dover School, Hamilton Mobile Trailer Park, Hamilton School, Campbell Grammar School, Odd Fellows Hall, Campbell High School District Office, Cherry Lane School, Davis residence, 309 Christopher, Stone residence, 250 Coventry Lane; Crawford residence, 774 Fairlands; San Tomas School, Woods residence, 1586 Villarita, and the Wolf residence, 1175 Denver Drive.

City Council votes to widen Latimer bridges

City Manager Robert C. Stephens took the bull by the horns Monday night and recommended that the City act on widening the two bridges on Latimer Avenue. Stephens said, "In my judgement because of the increase in traffic and the condition of Campbell Avenue which is to go under improvements next year, anything less than city council votes contd widening the bridges under 24 feet is doing a disservice to the people of Campbell."

Stephens pointed out that a traffic count taken in January of this year indicated 7,400 cars traveled Latimer Avenue which is over a thousand more than in January, 1963. Stephens reported that he was aware that the bridges will be "wiped out by the San Tomas Expressway" and the money lost, but "I think it will be $4000 well spent."

Councilman Edward Rogers called the expense "good insurance". After some discussion with City Engineer Myron Hawk who indicated it would take between two and six months to complete the bridges.

Funeral for Joseph Gomes, Campbell High Trustee

Funeral services were conducted last Friday morning, from St. Lucy's Church, for Joseph V. Gomes, 286 E. Hamilton Avenue, prominent Campbell rancher and long-time member of the Campbell Union High School District board of trustees. He died Wednesday morning, April 1, of luekemia at a San Jose Hospital. He was 64.

Gomes attended Campbell Schools and was a graduate of Stanford University where he earned a doctorate in law. Following service in the U.S. Army in World War I, Gomes took up ranching here, growing apricots, prunes and pears.

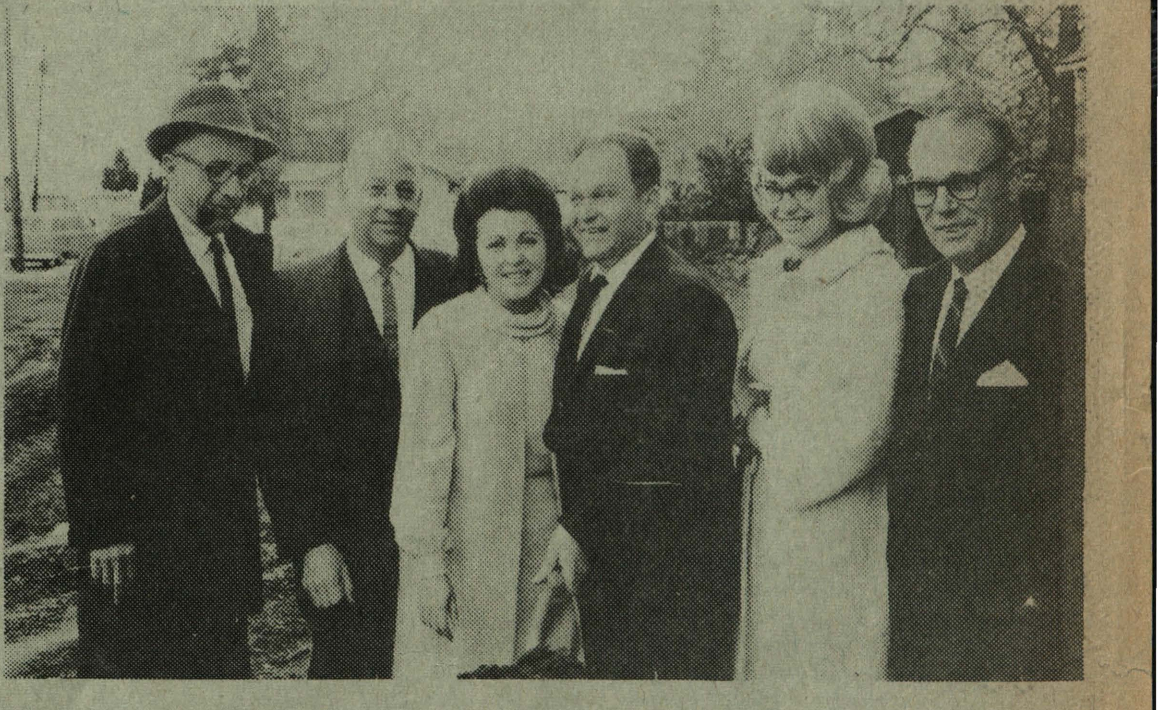
He served 21 consecutive years on the board of trustees of the Campbell High School District, several times as president and clerk. He was a member of the board at the time of his death.

In addition to his service to education, Gomes was on the advisory board of the California Prune and Apricot Assn. and the California Canning Company, formerly Richmond Chase. He was a member of Orchard City Grange, and the American Legion.

Gomes was a parishioner of St. Lucy's Church and a member of the Campbell Kiwanis Club. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Jennie Gomes; a son, Jerry Gomes, a Campbell fireman; five daughters, Mrs. Jeanette Watson, Mrs. June Weitzel, Miss Jean Gomes, Miss Jean Gomes, all of Campbell, and Mrs. Joyce Lang of Seattle, Washington. Interment was in Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery.

Youngster hit by motor-scooter

Thirteen year old James D. Crough, 758 W. Rincon Avenue, is back in school this week, following a run-in with a motor scooter. A complaint on file with the Campbell Police Department reports that Louis Burton, 26, 820 W. Rincon Avenue, was allegedly driving his motor scooter on the sidewalk of Rincon Avenue near Christopher Dr. when he ran into the Crough youngster. The boy was taken to Campbell Community Hospital and later released



EXPAND--Blendwell Interiors will start construction of a modern two story building at the corner of Third and Campbell Avenue soon. Proprietors Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kagel (center) lift the first shovel of earth for the project. Standing by are Charles Rose and Arthur Mayo, left, and Miss Sharon Murty and Joaquin Payne of Wells Fargo Bank.

City Council Elections, April 14 - Vote

Editorial

We recommend....

The readers of The Campbell Press have become accustomed to expect recommendations concerning elections, and the forthcoming election is to us the most important.

In our opinion, this election is the most important since incorporation. Not only are the three seats important, but from amongst the five "new" Council members a mayor must be chosen.

While we are aware that the Mayor's post is chosen by the Councilmen, we must bear in mind that the five men must have the opportunity to have a wide choice. In our opinion, the two incumbents have not the experience to take on the job at this time.

In choosing our recommendations, we felt it wise to choose the three men who would do a job for most of the Campbell citizens most of the time.

Our reasons for recommending Elmer Blakey rise from what has happend during the past two years at some of the City Council meetings. A councilman is called upon to decide on many subjects which are usually "out of his line" and that range from annexations to zoning. Of over a million dollar city budget, items pertaining to engineering and public works receive a large portion of the budget. In our opinion, a member of the Council who could talk and understand the "language" would be in a much better position to ask questions about any given project before any taxpayer money is spent. We submit that the outgoing Council could have used such assistance. And because of the many ramifications connected with the expected growth, we believe that Blakey's knowledge of engineering would serve as "the other side" during any discussions in this field. No other candidate seems to be able to offer this advantage.

William Smeed can, in our opinion, bring to the City Council a wealth of information in two fields. Because he has had the experience on the Planning Commission and is now serving as chairman of the group. And because, in our mind, we think that something has been lacking as to laison between the Planning Commission and the present City Council, we would expect Smeed to cause a closer relationship between the two bodies. This, we believe, is a long overdue step. Also because of his profession, it is our opinion, that here, too, an attorney's view point "on the other side" can bring about a better understanding as to the whys and wherefores of certain league aspects relating to the problems where the City Attorney is called upon to make a ruling. At present, it is our observation that the City attorney's rulings are not elaborated upon through questions that have been asked by the present Council. Here again Smeed would be able to use "legal parlance" to get to the "meat" of any discussion on a particular question.

We just happen to feel that the citizens of Campbell should seriously think about the type of government and the people representing them at the local level. And here we take the entire future Council into account. Of the carryover members, one is usually out of town most of the day because of the nature of his work. The other is usually around town close to the daily happenings. Smeed and Blakey are forced to be out of the city during the day because of their work. So in recommending Charles Rose to fill the other spot, we feel that his interest in the community is beyond reproach. He has served as Park and Recreation Commissioner, and has an almost perfect attendance record at the Council meetings since he chose not to run for re-election, after having served for six years. Charles Rose is Chairman of the Commercial Development Committee of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce. By his past record he will certainly do his utmost to represent all of the people at all times.

Because of his previous experience on the Council and because of his availability and because of his proven interest in all phases of Campbell's future we also submit that Charles Rose be seriously considered to become Campbell's next Mayor. With him as Mayor and Smeed and Blakey to fill the Council seats, we sincerely feel that Campbell will again rise to take its place as the "Hub of the West Valley". It's time to move again. And it's time to make each tax dollar expended count. We recommend that Charles Rose, William Smeed and Elmer Blakey can give the citizens of Campbell the type of government it needs.

One point we should like to bring out is the fact that should the three men we are recommending be successful; representation of the City will be well divided. By this we mean that Rose resides in the center of Campbell while Smeed lives on the East side (Hamilton Avenue area) and Blakey's home is in the San Tomas area. Ralph Doetsch lives on the South side of town, East of Winchester, while Bob McElroy lives on the West side North of East Campbell Avenue. It may be of interest to many that four of the present City Councilmen live East of Winchester Road and not more than three blocks off West Campbell Avenue.

We also suggest that after the election, each of the defeated candidates be listed as possible Planning Commission members or any other vacancy that may arise in the City's operation. We feel that since these men have shown an interest in the local government, their services should be accepted in the best possible manner. And because other phases of city government operations can give them the experience and interest to help the "new" Council during the next two years.

We should like to repeat that our recommendations are being submitted because of a sense of duty and responsibility. We have studied the "issues" and Campbell's problems. We have tried to use logic and common sense in our judgement. However, this does not necessarily make us right. We did not try to pick the "winners". Our most important aim in the elections is to avoid a popularity contest. If after your study and thought you arrive at other decisions, this is your choice and it's your vote. And it's your City. A little time and consideration will prove very valuable to each of us during the next two years. We recommend Rose, Smeed and Blakey. The choice is yours... the voters. Won't you plan to be one? VOTE!

Wells Fargo earnings up

Wells Fargo Bank's per-share earnings for the first quarter of this year were up 14 per cent over the first quarter of 1963, it was reported today by the bank's president, Ransom M. Cook.

For the current period, net operating income after taxes amounted to $5,021,121 or 57 cents per share. For the same period last year the comparable figures were $4,372,574 or 50 cents per share, adjusted for Wells Fargo's 75 per cent stock dividend paid in February of this year.

First National Bank continues to show growth

The First National Bank of San Jose reports Resources of $145,221,000 in its March 31 Statement of Condition. This is an increase of about 8% ahead of the same period last year. Total deposits reached a new high of $130,043,000. Loans and discounts of $84,827,000 are 6% ahead of the same 1963 period.

Community action plan offered by Bank of America

Bank of America has a new report "How to Get Community Action" ready for distribution. The report is a dependable plan for getting communities to act on certain community problems. It outlines a tested self-help process developed by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce which has been getting results in communities from 5,000 to 300,000 population throughout the nation.

Civic minded citizens who propose to tackle problems too often are hopelessly saddled with the ensuing work, but under the plan discussed in the bank's report the success of a project depends largely on "An ever-widening circle that brings more and more interested people into the process."

CUSD trustees approve funds for math program

The Board of Trustees of Campbell Union School District approved applications for N.D.E.A. funds for a new science and math program in the total amount of $29,428 including district matching funds of $14,715.

The district administration asked for materials, books and equipment to further the educational program to the amount of $17,249 for math and $12,179 for science. Of these amounts matching district funds are required to the amount of $8,625 for math and $6,090 for science.

According to Mrs. Helen Petersen, Director of Instruction, objectives for the new math program are Upgrading of the teaching of mathematical concepts; better teaching of the structure, the properties, and the skills in using mathematical operations: helping children to like, understand and use mathematics appropriate to their level of maturity, and preparing all teachers to teach the new math.

Pilot programs in S.M.S.G. in grades 2-8 in selected classrooms have been in operation for several years. Cost of these pilot programs has been born by the district for pupil and supplementary materials as recommended by the publishers.

The proposed program will be the "Greater Cleveland Mathematics Program" as adopted by the State of California in primary grades and the new math texts adopted for grade 7. This program will require the use of supplementary, manipulative and audio-visual materials.

A television set and antenna distribution system is needed to help take advantage of S.M.S.G. programs for teachers and children, now being broadcast by KQED. Mrs. Petersen said, "We also wish to be prepared for the U.H.F. station at present being constructed by Santa Clara County as we have been informed that math in-service training and learning will be important parts of their program which is scheduled to start broadcasts September, 1964."

Buc Frosh-Soph WVAL pennant contenders

With the start of League play on April 9, the WVAL Frosh-Soph Championship will go up for grabs.

Last year's winner, Campbell High, will have a good chance of retaining their title. Having had practice games with four other WVAL league teams, the Bucs have faired well winning 3 of the 4 games.

Highlight of this 4 game series was a no-hit, no-run game in the Campbell-Blackford Contest. Campbell pitcher, Don Hahn, performed this feat against the Blackford team that offered Moreland Little League star Ted Campbell.

Cities can benefit from County Planning study

The results of a 2 1/2 year study on County Planning has been made public by the Santa Clara County Planning Department. The report, called the 701 Plan, has two purposes: to provide information to the cities for better decisions and to create a basis for county policy.

Major element the program has produced has been the land use studies. The information includes the number of undeveloped acres of land in each city. How many acres are developed in commercial, industrial, residential, multiple dwellings, etc. In addition, the report turned back the clock to 1956 so that the planners can see what the land was used for then and how much change there has been. There are population studies on current growth rates and projections for small areas of the county. Of prime importance are the studies estimating how many acres of land are likely to be developed for urban purposes between now and 1970. There are estimates of public facilities needed to serve present and future needs.

All the material has been distributed to the city's administrative staffs. The studies suggest that some problems we now face are so big that only joint policy and action of several governments will solve them. Any county-wide plan will be useful only when the cities have agreed upon policies which they have indicated they want. Such a plan can serve as a coordinating guide for all the cities' goals and policies. Each city can make surer decisions because it knows the broad aims of its neighboring cities.

Leon Pollard of th County Planning Commission explained th 701 Plan to the members of Campbell's Ci Council on March

Campbell juvenile officer attends delinquency meet

Sgt. Donald Burr, juvenile officer for the Campbell Police Department attended a conference on Delinquency Prevention and Youth Welfare on March 31 in the City of Sunnyvale. The conference was held under the coordination of Santa Clara County Juvenile Probation Officer, Willie S. Ellison, the Delinquency Prevention Officer. Approximately 450 to 500 people attended the conference.

"It was very satisfying for me, as a Police Officer to see the number of people that are interested and concerned with the young people of this county and with their problems," Sgt. Burr stated. "The people attending the conference were from all walks of life, students to judges," he said. The key note speaker was Dr. A. La Monti Smith, Faculty University of California School of Criminology, who gave an interesting introduction to some of the problems facing our youngsters and the possible prevention of these problems.

There were numerous panel discussions under different fields and their roles in the prevention of delinquency. Some of these panel discussions were, Female Delinquency, Education for the Culturally Deprived Child, Youth Employment Work Experience and Vocational Training, Housing and Delinquency, The Schools Special Services for Delinquency Prevention, Child Care and Health Services, Moral Standards of the Community and Delinquency, Delinquency Across the Social Class Boundaries, Family Life Education, Leisure Time Activities, The Role of Law Enforcement in Delinquency Prevention, and Protective Services.

Campbell Hospital eligible for accreditation

A letter from Edwin L. Crosby, M.D. Executive Vice President, American Hospital Association, brought welcome news today to Campbell Community Hospital. The 48-bed hospital has been approved for registration by the Board of Trustees of the American Hospital Association.

This step toward accreditation by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals followed a survey of the hospital made March 7 by Maurice J. Norby, a representative of the American Hospital Association.

Elton E. Admire, Administrator of Campbell Community Hospital, expressed pleasure and pride in receiving the A. H. A. letter of approval, and immediately requested an application for membership in the Association.

When membership is granted, the next step will be to notify the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals that Campbell Community is ready for inspection by its visiting team of inspectors. Admire expressed hope the inspection can take place this summer, speeding the climax of full accreditation.

These stages in progress toward the prized accreditation cannot be taken until a hospital has served its community for one full year. Campbell Community Hospital completed its first year January 21, 1964.

More About OLD GOAT

Council forum, with George and Dorothy. In fact our forum was patterned after the Temple City job.

WHILE WE were listening to the issues and problems of Temple City, we could not help but feel that the two cities are faced with many of the same problems. The only difference is Temple City seems to have money in the bank and boasts of no city tax. We have taxes.

WE CERTAINLY LOOK forward to Campbell's immediate future, and to the completion of the many projects that have been hanging fire for so long. The park, the corporation yard, the elimination of more "sharing" streets. During the past two years we have been of the opinion that most of Campbell's growth and "progress" happened in spite of itself. We look forward to a more active City Council with a definite plan for the future as well as for a plan for the unforeseeable future.

"AT THE GAZEBO"

The Gay '90s theme will feature a "fabric to fashion" show presented by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church of Campbell on April 11 at 1:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Church.

No action taken on Rapid Transit

City Attorney Joseph A. Bonacina told the Campbell City Council Monday night that "even tentative approval" of the Santa Clara County Coordinated Mass Transportation Plan "will open the door to a request for financial committment."

Bonacina made his report to the Council on the Mass Transportation Plan following his study of the program. He reported the purpose of the County study is to get automobiles off the highways, and to tie in with the Bay Area and the State Rapid Transit Plan. Cost of the County Study is $400,000, Bonacina pointed out. Financial support would come from the county level, he said, with additional funds to be requested from the cities. The Council voted to "table the issue for 30 days until further information was available and we have a new Council."

Dog Training Club to meet

The Santa Clara Dog Training Club, Inc., will meet Saturday, April 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Howe, 45 W. Budd Avenue. Plans will be discussed for the Club's annual rummage sale which is to be held in June. Following the adjournment, the Club's Annual White Elephant Sale will be held. All members are invited to attend.
